

E-News
September 2008

Beginning September 15, 2008 the Oklahoma Tax Commission is offering Clean Slate '08. This is your chance to wipe the slate clean with past due Oklahoma taxes without penalties, interest, or additional fees. Taxpayers are still responsible for their original liability. For more information visit our Government Documents webpage.

City of Tulsa launches online bill pay giving residents several payment options: Online (click here to register), Automatic Withdrawal (from a bank or checking account – click here to access the authorization form), By phone (596-9511), By mail, and In person (access a map of payment kiosks here). For more information about City of Tulsa Utilities services and options, visit <http://www.cityoftulsa.org/CityServices/Utilities/>.

So You Want to Go to College ... Start @ the Library Series
October programs

College Fair for American Indian Students Middle School and High School

Saturday, Oct. 25, 2008
10 a.m.-noon

Central Library * Fourth Street and Denver Avenue * 596-7977

Come-and-Go Visits With Colleges and Universities
Aaronson Auditorium

Meet with representatives from area colleges and universities, get information about financial-aid opportunities, and learn about library resources on colleges and funding. Bring student and parent 2007 W-9 forms to use the FAFSA 4caster.

How to Pay for a College Education
Lecture Room

At this come-and-go program, Shonday Harmon and Owen Hawzipta will dispel the myth that American Indian students are entitled to a free college education. They will share information on college preparation, understanding the FAFSA application, and how to locate financial aid and scholarships.

Sponsored by the Tulsa Library Trust, American Indian Resource Center, Readers' Library and Research Center

Show Me the Money! College Financial Aid for American Indian Students

Saturday, Oct. 11, 10-11:30 a.m.

Maxwell Park Library, 1313 N. Canton

Seating is limited; preregistration is required. Call 669-6055 to register.

Sponsored by the Charles W. and Pauline K. Flint Foundation

AIRC programming:

American Indian Festival of Words Author Award Ceremony
American Indian Festival of Words

Saturday, March 7, 2009

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Central Library * Fourth Street and Denver Avenue * 596-7977

For more information about the AIRC, please visit our Web site at www.tulsalibrary.org/airc. If you do not want to receive this newsletter, please let me know and I will remove you from my distribution list.

Teresa Runnels, American Indian Resource Center Coordinator
400 Civic Center * Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103-3830
(918) 596-7398 * fax (918) 596-7882
trunnel@tulsalibrary.org