Jan. 13 “The Jewels of the Pacific” by Dr. Norman Hyne, semiretired professor of petroleum geology, University of Tulsa
Hop aboard a six-star rated cruise to the storied Pacific islands of Fiji, Society and Cook.

Jan. 20 “Canoeing Through the Thelon Wildlife Sanctuary, Northwest Territories, Canada” by Bob and Judi McCoy, avid outdoors people

Paddle a fully loaded tandem canoe in the Arctic barren lands and encounter musk oxen, wolves, caribou, moose, terns and mosquitoes!

Jan. 27 “Iceland, Before the Economic Crisis” by Jan Curth, retired elementary science teacher, Tulsa Public Schools

See views of the mid-Atlantic ridge, weird lava formations, glacial waterfalls and beautiful churches, all during the season when the sun never sets.

Feb. 3 “The Culture of Food in China: Producing, Preparing, Sharing” by Dr. Jessica Stowell, associate director, Confucius Institute, University of Oklahoma

Join a discussion of food philosophy and the ritual of the meal as we view this vast country through its varied cuisines.

Feb. 10 “Greece: Nafplio and Beyond” by Carol Eames, retired education director, Tulsa Zoo

Explore towns and ancient ruins on the Peloponnesian Peninsula of Greece with a final stop in Athens, the capital city of 3 million people.

Feb. 17 “We Answered the Call: Building the Crown Jewel of Afghanistan” by Col. James Wilhite, Angel Flight pilot

Given the mission to build a university in Kabul with no money and no budget, Col. Wilhite began a task that would change the shape of higher education for many years to come. After the program, he will sell and sign copies of his book “Operation Enduring Freedom.”
