

MUSIC SANDWICHED IN
Presents

Celebrating
Hispanic
Heritage Month

Wednesdays Sept. 1, 8, 15, 22
12:10-12:50 p.m.

Central Library, Aaronson Auditorium
Fourth Street and Denver Avenue • 549-7458

Sponsored by the Friends of the Tulsa
City-County Libraries & Central Library's Media Center
Sandwiches and coffee are available for purchase at the door.

Sept. 1

Journey to Mexico with the Mariachi Tulsa as they perform a colorful set of traditional mariachi songs mixed with everything from rancheras to cumbias, all while wearing authentic charro costumes.

Sept. 8

Appassionata, featuring Tulsa Symphony Orchestra violist Jeff Cowen and harpist Jill Wiebe, sets musical sights on Latin America. Hear the bold and seductive sounds of the mambo, tango and rhumba, performed by a unique combination of classical instruments.

Sept. 15

Experience the soothing melodies of the traditional bolero music played by El Trio Balancan on requinto, acoustic and bass guitars.

Sept. 22

Hear the symphony of sound unusual for just one instrument as guitarist extraordinaire Edgar Cruz strums a variety of Latin and Spanish guitar favorites in his characteristic fast-paced, complex style.

400 Civic Center
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103-3830

Free and Open to the Public • TulsaLibrary.org

If you are hearing-impaired and need a qualified interpreter, please call the library

48 hours in advance of the program.

Produced by the Public Relations Office 2010