TULSA CITY-COUNTY LIBRARY

Reading Roadshow

Your child heard stories from some of these books today.

Reading Roadshow is a mobile library service of the Tulsa City-County Library.
Printed through the Public Relations Office 2009
www.tulsalibrary.org

When Mom or Dad asks what you did today, you can tell them the Reading Roadshow came to read and play!

“Caps for Sale” by Esphyr Slobodkina
A band of mischievous monkeys steals every one of a peddler’s caps while he takes a nap under a tree.

“Big Little Monkey” by Carole Lexa Schaefer
Little Monkey sets out one morning to find the perfect playmate, encountering a singing parrot, a hissing boa and a quiet sloth before finding someone to play with.

“Five Little Monkeys Sitting in a Tree” by Eileen Christelow
Five little monkeys sitting in a tree discover, one by one, that it is unwise to tease Mr. Alligator.

“A Monkey Among Us” written and illustrated by Dave Horowitz
He’s a monkey among us ... among a fungus ... now HUMONGOUS. What will that monkey get up to next?

“One Monkey Too Many” by Jackie French Koller
Adventurous monkeys have a series of mishaps and escapades involving a bike, a canoe, a restaurant and a hotel.

“Where’s My Mom?” by Julia Donaldson
A butterfly tries to help a lost young monkey find its mother in the jungle, meeting many different animals along the way.

Reading With Your Child

Being familiar with printed language helps children feel comfortable with books and understand that print is useful. Increase your child's print awareness by allowing them to turn the pages, hold the book, or read or tell the story. Try holding the book upside down and see if your child turns the book around. Introducing these skills to your preschoolers will help them get ready to read on their own.

Finger Play

"Five Little Monkeys"

Five little monkeys, swinging in a tree
(hold up five fingers and swing hand)

Teasing Mr. Alligator, You can't catch me!!!
(take index finger and shake it up and down)

Along comes Mr. Alligator quiet as can be, and (whisper, move hands like a fish)

Snapped that monkey right outta that tree!
(louder, open hands like a mouth and clap hands together)

Repeat with four, three, two and one.
After the last monkey, say

No more monkeys swinging in the tree.
(shake head)
