

Plan4College CENTER

November 2008

Thank you for subscribing to our Plan4College E-newsletter. This is the first of what we hope to be many useful newsletters guiding students, parents, teachers and counselors through the vast process of college preparation. Each month the Plan4College coordinators will share program information, related books, helpful websites plus much more and don't forget to visit one of our two brand-new Plan4College Centers at the following locations: Martin Regional Library or Rudisill Regional Library.

College Financial Aid: Fund Your Future

Thursday, Nov. 6 * 7-8:30 p.m.

Central Library * Aaronson Auditorium * Fourth Street and Denver Avenue * 596-7977

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): Workshop for American Indian Students

Saturday, Nov. 8 * 10-11:30 a.m.

Maxwell Park Library * 1313 N. Canton

Seating is limited; preregistration is required. Call 669-6055 to register.

Gates Millennium Scholars Program for American Indian Students

Saturday, Nov. 15 * 10 a.m.-noon

Maxwell Park Library * 1313 N. Canton

Seating is limited; preregistration is required. Call 669-6055 to register.

Third Annual Latino College Fair

Tuesday, Nov. 18 * 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Martin Regional Library * 2601 S. Garnett Road * 669-6340

Book Alert:

Attended one of our programs and are looking for more college financial aid information?

Look no further than your nearest library for titles like the ones below.

501 Ways for Adult Students to Pay for College

By Gen and Kelly Tanabe

378.3 T153f 2004

Aimed squarely at single parents, senior citizens, or adult students who are going to college or graduate school, this book examines the issues and challenges unique to adults who want to go back to school despite

Paying for College Without Going Broke

The Princeton Review

378.30973 S933 2008

Shows students and their parents how to calculate aid eligibility before applying to college and plan ahead to improve chances of receiving aid. The book also includes advice on how to negotiate financial aid offices, handle special circumstances (for single the pressing responsibilities of families, work, and mortgages.

Financial Aid for the Utterly Confused

By Anthony J. Bellia

378.3 B417f 2007

Walks you through the entire process of obtaining the maximum amount to which you may be entitled. You get: expert guidance on applying for all forms of financial aid. Insider tips on government and private financing, grants, and more cost-cutting strategies.

parents or independent students), and receive educational tax breaks.

How to Pay for College: A Practical Guide for Families

by Gen and Kelly Tanabe

378.38 T153h 2008

An informative guide to getting the most money for college tuition, housing, books, and living expenses. Covering scholarships as well as financial aid and giving a step-by-step outline to the FAFSA, this reference offers advice for avoiding the most common mistakes and for choosing the best package for all income levels.

Helpful Websites:

www.okcollegestart.org
www.okhighered.org
www.federalstudentaid.ed.gov
www.learningexpresslibrary.com

For more information about the Plan4College Centers, please visit our website at www.tulsalibrary.org/plan4college.

Jessica Reed
Plan4College Center Coordinator
Martin Regional Library
2601 S. Garnett Road
Tulsa, OK 74129
(918) 669-6340
jreed@tulsalibrary.org

Lee Platt
Plan4College Center Coordinator
Rudisill Regional Library
1520 N. Hartford
Tulsa, OK 74106
(918) 596-7280
lplatt@tulsalibrary.org