EAST AFRICA PHOTO SAFARI

by Jan Reese,

Retired Associate Dean of Students,
Chicago Medical School

A photo safari in Tanzania and Kenya, provided opportunities to explore many animals and varied areas of the Serengeti, the Masai Mara and the Ngorongoro Crater. The highlight was viewing over 1.4 million wildebeest and 200,000 zebra and gazelle, tracked by Africa's predators, on their great migration.

MADAGASCAR

by Dale Wilkerson,

Retired Vice-President and Controller of Alliance Resource Partners

Come to the fourth largest island in the world, located in the Indian Ocean off the coast of Southeast Africa. It is a biodiversity hotspot with over 90 percent of its wildlife found nowhere else on Earth. Join us as we look for lemurs in the forests of this unique spot.

Feb. 10

INDIA AND NEPAL IN 1995

by Gary Mailes,

Retired accountant with Atlantic Richfield Oil Co.

Explore a country that is 1/3 the size of the U.S. but has almost four times the population – India. Its neighbor to the north, Nepal, has eight of the 10 highest mountains in the world on its border. Cap off the journey with a bird's eye view of Mt. Everest from a plane instead of the usual hike.

Feb. 17

A VISIT TO ANTARCTICA

by Howard Barnett, President,

Oklahoma State University-Tulsa

From the tip of South America sail for 10 days aboard Le Boreal, a French exhibition ship. Encounter four different kinds of penguin, more birds than one is able to count along with whales, walruses and seals.

Feb. 24

PANAMA CANAL PLUS

by Tom Campbell, President,

Campbell Organizational Services, Inc.

Acquire some canal history as you cruise through the Panama Canal and ports beyond. Visit the historic center of Cartagena, Columbia (one of the most raided ports during colonial times) and a Costa Rican rain forest before riding a submarine in the Cayman Islands.
