It's time for Touch-A-Truck!

Saturday, April 29 • 10 a.m.-noon. Bring the entire family to explore big trucks and vehicles at this free outdoor event. Enjoy sitting in the driver's seat, honking the horn of your favorite truck and interacting with community helpers like police officers, firefighters and construction workers. Snack on refreshments from local food vendors, listen to live music and make fun memories together at the Owasso Library Touch-a-Truck!

Adults

Eat Better, Move More Monday, April 24 • 11 a.m.-noon. This free nine-week class for older adults and/or caregivers focuses on improving nutrition and introducing movement and exercise. Instructors will share ways to improve your nutrition, and simple, fun ways to introduce movement and exercise into everyday routines. Presented by the Oklahoma Healthy Aging Initiative. Registration is required. Call 918-549-7323 to register.
