Cass Trahan & Lainie Goad Owners, Evoque Lash and Day Spa

Cass Trahan and Lainie Goad recently opened Evoque Lash and Day Spa.

"I use to work at Lash Love, and then I decided to go out on my own," she said.

Trahan specializes in facial waxing, lash extensions and high-end lash extensions.

"I'm really into specialty make up as well," she said. "I love to travel; I spend a lot of time (working) too."

Trahan grew up in Claremore before moving to Georgia for college.

"I received a Bachelor's of Sequential Art from the Savannah College of Art and Design," she said.

Goad has a very different background. She graduated with a Bachelor's of Science degree around 20 years ago.

"I only got started here about six months ago after switching from teaching," Goad said.

Goad taught for 12 years in the Owasso Public Schools system.

Although she has only been working in this business for six months, she has an impressive menu of items available for clients.

"I can do skin care, lashes, microdermabrasion, custom spa facials, chemical peels and multiple other skin care services," Goad said.

Goad, an Owasso native, graduated from Owasso High School and received her degree from Oklahoma State University.

"I live here with my husband, two kids and our two dogs," Goad said.

Evoque Lash and Day Spa is located at 202 E. 2nd Ave., Suite 110. For appointments, call 918.609.0265 or 918.854.1601.

Haunted by his own secrets, Luke would never blame Lettie for what happened in the past. Against relentless snows, murderous desperadoes and raiding Sioux, Luke and Lettie will face a heartrending choice: abandon a lawless land before it destroys them, or fight for their wildest dreams.

Guilty Minds by Joseph Finder

The chief justice of the Supreme Court is about to be defamed by a powerful gossip website called Slander Sheet, which specializes in dirt on celebs and politicians. Its top reporter has written an exposé claiming that he had liaisons with an escort, a young woman willing to appear on video and tell the world her salacious yet convincing tale. But the chief justice is not without formidable allies, and his greatest supporter is determined to stop the story in its tracks. Nick Heller is a private intelligence operative based in Boston hired by lawyers, politicians, and even foreign governments. Known as both a maverick and a dedicated, high-powered investigator, he's called to Washington, D.C. to help out in this delicate, potentially explosive situation.

They thought they knew his fate. He wouldn't be bothering them anymore; still, their lives would never be the same. Madeline has returned to Washington after her grandmother's mysterious death. The Sleeping Beauty Killer by Mary Higgins Clark & Alafair Burke

Television producer Laurie Moran puts everything on the line to help a woman she thinks was wrongfully convicted of murder. Casey Carter was convicted of murdering her fiancé - famed philanthropist Hunter Raleigh III - 15 years ago. And Casey has always claimed she's innocent. Although she was charged and served out her sentence in prison, she is still living "under suspicion." She hears whispers at the grocery store. She can't get a job. Even her own mother treats her like she's guilty. Her story attracts the attention of Laurie Moran and the Under Suspicion news team. It's Casey's last chance to finally clear her name, and Laurie pledges to exonerate her.

Saffire by Sigmund Brouwer

For President Teddy Roosevelt, controlling the east-west passage between two oceans mattered so much, that he orchestrated a revolution to control it. His command was to 'let the dirt fly,' and for years, the American Zone of the Panama Canal mesmerized the world, working in uneasy co-existence with the Panamanian aristocrats. It's in this buffered Zone where, in 1909, James Holt takes that first step to protect a mulatto girl named Saffire, expecting a short and simple search for her mother. Instead, it draws him away from safety into a land haunted by a history of pirates, gold runners and plantation owners, all leaving behind ghosts of their interwoven desires sins and ambitions - ghosts that create the web of deceit and intrigue of a new generation of revolutionary politics.
