LIBRARY CORNER

Storytimes at library to resume Sept. 2

By Jennifer McQuade
 Contributing Writer

We are working hard on preparing fun fall storytimes at the Owasso library. Storytimes will resume Tuesdays and Wednesdays beginning Sept. 2.

On Tuesdays and Wednesdays we have storytime for babies and toddlers up to age 2 at 9:30 a.m.; storytime for preschoolers ages 3-5 at 10 a.m.; and stay and play for all ages from 10:30-11 a.m.

Homeschool storytimes for school age children will begin Sept. 9. These storytimes will be every Tuesday from 2:30-3:30 p.m. and include stories and a craft.

Sensory Storytime will be from 4-5 p.m. Friday, Sept. 4. Sensory Storytime is for ages 1-7 and focuses on learning with all five senses and is especially designed for children with a variety of learning styles or sensory integration challenges.

If you have a child age 3 or younger, we would love to have you sign up for our new Family Place workshop. 1,2,3, Play With Me: A Parent/Child Workshop is a five-week series from 10-11:15 a.m. Fridays, Sept. 19, 26 and Oct. 3, 10, 17.

Each weekly program offers opportunities for children to play with developmentally appropriate toys in a play group atmosphere and for parents to visit one-to-one with early childhood specialists in the areas of child development, speech and language, nutrition, play, movement and music.

Class size is limited. Registration is required and is for the series. Call (918) 549-7624 to register. The class is sponsored by Family Place Libraries and Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Read the Film books at the Owasso Library

Have you ever heard the phrase "The movie was good, but the book was better"? We have a display at the Owasso Library of Read the Film books, where we keep a collection of books that have been recreated as popular television shows or movies. Read a few and see if you think the book was better.

The Leftovers by Tom Perrotta

In this book about love, loss, and human connection, Tom Perrotta explores the emotions of loved ones left behind when a number of people vanish from their lives.

What happens to these people who have lost a child, a husband, a friend, or a parent, not to death, but because they simply vanish one day? Could it be the Rapture? Find out in this engrossing novel that has now become a TV series.

A Most Wanted Man by John Le Carre

A young Muslim man named Issa is smuggled into Germany in the middle of the night. He claims the rights to a large inheritance kept in a bank in Britain. Annabel, a German lawyer, is determined to help the young man stay in Germany and becomes involved in an extensive plot involving spies from three different countries. This fast-paced espionage thriller by Le Carre has been made into a blockbuster on the big screen.

Winter's Tale by Mark Helprin

Peter Lake is a poor mechanic down on his luck. He attempts to rob a mansion in New York he believes to be empty. What he discovers inside is the beautiful, rich, and deathly ill Beverly Penn. Their love story transcends time and death in this romantic urban fairy tale. The DVD of this motion picture has been recently released.
