Visit the Library Feb. 13 for 'Have You Heard?'

By Michelle Beckes
Branch Manager
Skiatook Library

"Have You Heard?" is the library program for grades K-3. If your child was a regular participant in storytime, and then Wham! — they became all-day students, then we have an afterschool option for you.

Once a month, on the second Thursday of the month, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., we have a "big kids" storytime. A "mystery" book is revealed with supporting activities and crafts.

And what would an after-school storytime be without a snack? So bring a friend and come on by the library on Thursday, February 13, and experience "Have You Heard?"

Parents and caregivers are welcome, too.

In other library news, we have received IRS tax forms. We have the instruction booklets, except those for regular 1040, which will be here anytime. We can still print your state forms and/or instructions for 10 cents a page.

Additionally, March is Teen Tech Month. Stay tuned for more information about that.
