

Noteworthy

EVENTS TO INSPIRE, EDUCATE AND MOTIVATE!

▶ GET CREATIVE AT LOCAL ART CLASSES

If this month's issue has inspired you to let your creative juices flow, Tulsa has a variety of options for art classes. If you don't already have a favorite studio, consider one of these:

Ziegler Art & Frames offers weekly oil, acrylic and watercolor classes. Some classes are priced per day or by the month, while others are offered in a multi-week series. Prices typically range from $60 a month to $20 for a half day. Ziegler offers a free open studio on Fridays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. where painters can work on their craft without an instructor. Ziegler is a resource for many art supplies and can frame your finished pieces.
6 N. Lewis Ave., Tulsa • (918) 584-2217

WaterWorks Art Center can be booked for parties or gatherings and offers a variety of classes on a weekly basis or as a one-time event. Prices typically range from $35 to $65 for a one-time class, and $75 and up for a series of classes.
1710 Charles Page Blvd., Tulsa • (918) 596-2440

Zeg Art Studios offers a variety of art classes with daytime and evening options. Seniors even get a 10 percent discount on class fees, if requested. Most classes are $22 each or $79 for the month, and the fee usually includes supplies. The second Saturday of each month they offer a free "Super Seniors" class for those age 70 and above. Advance reservations are required for the Super Senior classes. Current class offerings include a Tuesday afternoon class exploring different art mediums, a Wednesday afternoon class on quilling (a beautiful, fun and easy paper art), a Tuesday evening art class and Coffee, Canvas and Creativity, an afternoon class on painting, mixed media and more. Zeg Art Studios will consider starting new classes on request if there are at least five interested people. Options could include painting, drawing, colored pencil, ink, Zentangle, wood burning, quilling, book binding, gourd painting/gourd carving and some stained glass.
700 E. Charles Page Blvd., Sand Springs • (918) 704-4979

Purple Glaze is Tulsa's original ceramic painting place and can be booked for a fun group party or visited on a drop-in basis. Participants select a ceramic piece from thousands of choices and paint it as their fancy dictates. Purple Glaze glazes and fires the piece and the artist returns several days later to get the finished masterpiece. Prices start around $15 to $20 depending on the piece chosen and whether the facilities are running a special on their studio fees. Purple Glaze offers two locations in Tulsa. 3303 S. Peoria Ave., Tulsa

(918) 592-6900 and 6528 E. 91st St., Tulsa • (918) 491-6900

▶ CELEBRITY ATTRACTIONS ANNOUNCES 2019 – 2020 BROADWAY SEASON

Tulsa audiences have embraced the annual Broadway seasons and made Celebrity Attractions' productions one of the most popular series in the country. With the highly anticipated debut of "Hamilton" this summer, Celebrity Attractions had to work hard to put together a new season which could generate the same enthusiasm. They did it by bringing in acclaimed productions and family-friendly fare in a schedule that has something for everyone.

"Les Miserables" (September 24 – 29, 2019): The world's most popular musical kicks off the 2019-2020 Broadway Season in Tulsa. Tulsans will be treated to a new production of the favorite with new staging and reimagined scenery in this timeless testament to the survival of the human spirit.

"Roald Dahl's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" (November 19 – 24, 2019): Journey into Willy Wonka's magical, mysterious chocolate factory with your own golden ticket to this popular favorite.

"Miss Saigon" (December 31 – January 5, 2020): A sensational cast of 42 talented performers bring to life a new production of the legendary musical love story.

"Anastasia" (April 7 – 12, 2020): From the final days of the Russian Empire to the roaring twenties in Paris, follow Anya on a journey to uncover the mysteries of her past in an epic adventure to find home, love and family.

"Disney's Frozen" (June 3 – 14, 2020): Production includes favorite songs from the beloved film in an expanded score that introduces a dozen new numbers. Join Elsa, Anna and their friends on an adventure to reunite their family and find true love.

"Come from Away" (July 14 – 19, 2020): You'll love the true story of 7,000 airline passengers stranded by 9/11 in a small town in Newfoundland. Watch strangers become friends in a production being proclaimed "Best Musical" across North America.

New subscribers for the Broadway season will be able to purchase season passes through a real-time online seat selection process coming this summer. Tickets to single shows will be available through Celebrity Attractions or the Tulsa PAC ticket office. For more information, call (918) 596-7111 or visit www.celebrityattractions.com.

▶ WRITER AND POET HONORED

On March 2, the Tulsa City-County Library is honoring award-winning poet and author Laura Tohe with the Festival of Words Writers Award. The presentation at 10:30 a.m. in Hardesty Regional Library's Connor's Cove will be followed by a book signing and a day of educational American Indian family events from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Tohe wrote the books "Code Talker Stories," "Making Friends with Water," "No Parole Today" and "Tseyi": Deep in the Rock, Reflections on Canyon de Chelly." She co-edited the poetry anthology "Sister Nations: Native American Women Writers on Community." In 2015, she was honored as the Navajo Nation Poet Laureate for 2015-2019, a title given to her in recognition of her work as a poet and writer. Tohe has also contributed to the music world with her libretto for The Phoenix Symphony, "Enemy Slayer, A Navajo Oratorio," which premiered in 2008 as part of the symphony's 60th anniversary. She is currently working on a new libretto on healing called "Nahasdzáán in the Glittering World," with performances scheduled later this spring in France.

A variety of family events are planned for March 2 after the award presentation:

- Native Culture Make & Take: 11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.
- Children's Crafts: 11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.
- Pawnee Tales Puppet Show: Noon – 12:30 p.m.
- Otoe Singers: 12:45 – 1:30 p.m.
- Traditional American Indian Dance Exhibition: Swing and Sway the Powwow Way!: 1:45 – 2:30 p.m.
- The Poison Puzzler Escape Room: Four 30-minute escape room adventures between 11:30 a.m. and 2:15 p.m.
- 5th Annual Preserving Our Tribal Languages Forum: 11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

All events take place at Hardesty Regional Library, 8316 E. 93rd St., Tulsa. For more information, call (918) 549-7323 or visit the library's website at www.tulsalibrary.org.