

Little Red Riding Hood: A Newfangled Prairie Tale

Written by Lisa Campbell Ernst

(Lesson by Lana Voss)

Focus: Language Arts & Mathematic Measurements

Pass Objectives:

6.1 Demonstrate knowledge of folk tales and fractured versions.

4.2b Select and use appropriate units of measurement in problem solving and everyday situations.

Supplies: Copies of different versions of Little Red Riding Hood to read and compare with Ernst fractured version. Make a list of new vocabulary words. Graph the similarities and differences in the stories using charts.

Copy the recipe at the end of the book onto recipe cards. Use measuring cups and spoons to measure flour, sugar, almond extract, butter, baking powder, salt, blueberries & sunflower seeds. Follow the recipe directions to bake the muffins. Serve with lemonade. Enjoy!
