

Brad Sneed & Expressionism

Lesson Plan by: Lana Voss

Visual Art and Literacy

Focus: Students will examine Brad Sneed's illustration style, Expressionism, using his books.

Pass Objectives:

- 1.3 Name and describe the principles of design: rhythm, balance, contrast, movement, and center of interest.
- 2.3 Demonstrate beginning skills of composition using elements of art and principles of design.

Supplies & Suggestions:

Visit a school or public library to find copies of Sneed's works:

Smoky Mountain Rose: An Appalachian Cinderella

When the Fly Flew In...

The Bravest of Us All

Deputy Harvey and the Ant Cow Caper

When Wishes Were Horses

The Boy Who Was Raised by Librarians

Picture a Letter

The Pumpkin Runner

Sorry

Thumbelina

Aesop's Fables

The Strange and wonderful Tale of Robert McDoodle

Turkey in the Straw

Create a center for the books and ask students to find examples of exaggerated lines, unusual perspectives, distorted faces and bodies.

Provide watercolors and watercolor paper. Have students paint a bug or animal using expressionism. Exhibit their watercolor works!
