about the summer reading program

Tulsa City-County Library's 2019 Summer Reading Program is for all ages. Earn great prizes and coupons for food and local recreation! Attend awesome free events! Read for the fun of it! Visit any library May 28-Aug. 3 and pick up a reading log or go to www.TulsaLibrary.org/summer.

parents and caregivers

Our goal is for everyone to have a good time at our events. With your help, we can develop and nurture each child's love of books, learning and the library. Parents and caregivers, please arrive on time. Some locations have limited seating. Children are seated first; adults are admitted only if space is available. We encourage parents and caregivers to remain in the library during the events.

day-care groups

We welcome day-care groups to attend our events. Some locations have limited seating. Please call 918-549-7323 before attending events, as we may refer you to another library.

library closings

All Tulsa City-County Library locations will be closed on Thursday, July 4 for Independence Day.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF HARRY POTTER QUIT THE QUIDDITCH TEAM, STOLE A TIME TURNER AND STARTED A PUNK-ROCK BAND WITH HIMSELF FROM AN EARLIER POINT IN THE SPACE-TIME CONTINUUM? THE ANSWER IS HARRY AND THE POTTERS.

Hailed as the founders of wizard rock, brothers Paul and Joe DeGeorge have released three full-length albums and played over 800 shows in libraries, rock clubs, art spaces, bookstores, basements, backyards and pizza places all over the world since forming Harry and the Potters in 2002.

Their high-energy live show has been legend for over a decade since Pitchfork place the band in its Best Live Shows of 2005 list noting, "the greatest rock and roll tour of the year took place this summer in public libraries across America ... The Decemberists wish they could lit-rock like this."

Take an Out-Of-This-World Adventure With These Awesome Performances!

These presentations are scheduled at several libraries and are designated with a ♦ in each library's listings.

123 Andres!

Andrés Salguero (aka 123 Andrés) brings joyful sounds, passion for bilingualism, and a high-energy love of music that gets kids singing and dancing in Spanish and English. A native of Bogotá, Colombia, Andrés won the 2016 Latin Grammy Award for Best Children's Album. Billboard Magazine called him "a rock star for little language learners."

Bubbles! Presented by Dustin Reudelhuber of Tulsa Balloons

Dustin Reudelhuber of Tulsa Balloons takes bubbles to the max in this comedy, educational bubble extravaganza. It's the craziest, most creative bubble show around. Mixing comedy, music and interactive bubble magic, Dustin engages and delights audiences of all ages.

Bounce'n Beethovens Presented by Midtown School of Performing Arts

Children explore music through movement and instruments as they play with egg shakers, bells, rhythm sticks, drums and maracas in this fun, interactive program for parents and kids.

Chris Capstone the Magician

There's never a dull moment with Chris Capstone and his fun, interactive magic tricks!

Drawing With Children's Book Illustrator Rich Davis

Blast into creative exploring in the far reaches of your imagination with author/illustrator Rich Davis. He will share how he makes pictures for children's books, draw a fun picture and lead kids in drawing space-themed pictures.

Dustin Reudelhuber – The Balloon Guy!

Voted children's entertainer of the year by TulsaKids magazine, Dustin entertains audiences with magic, juggling and amazing balloon sculptures. You never know what to expect!

Laura Doherty Duo: Sing, Sing a Song!

In this upbeat, interactive concert, nationally touring Laura Doherty gets kids engaged from the first strum of her acoustic guitar as she performs songs from her five award-winning children's CDs.

Lucky Diaz and the Family Jam Band

These Latin Grammy Award winners are back in town! Named by USA Today as the best new band on the children's music scene, this show is a hip-shaking, head-bopping, Los Angeles-based explosion of fun!

Mad Science Presents Destination: Moon

3 ... 2 ... 1 ... BLAST OFF! Launch into high flying adventure this summer with Mad Science. Our show ignites imagination, fun and learning as we experience space vacuums, principles of flight and astronaut training.

Make and Take: Cherokee Pottery

Join potter Crystal Hanna for native stories and a hands-on pottery workshop. Sponsored by the American Indian Resource Center.

Mike Schneider's Polka Music

Kids will get a kick out of Uncle Mike's jokes and catchy sing-along polka songs. No one goes home without doing the "Chicken Dance" and a special polka version of "Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes." Participation opportunities abound in this show that's fun for all ages!

Mr. Stinky Feet Returns

Mr. Stinky Feet will get the whole family rocking! With a healthy dose of clever fun and a whole lot of heart, Jim Cosgrove's music inspires the childlike nature of kids and adults. The songs in his set list give a nod to his folk-rock roots with hints of blues and country and an occasional kick of Cajun and Jamaican spice. His hit tunes "Stinky Feet" and "Ooey Gooley" tickle the whimsical spirits of kids of all ages.

Music With Will Parker

Children's songwriter and teaching artist Will Parker makes music for "kids ages 1-100." During Will's whimsical, interactive show, he plays guitar and harmonica, and sings songs that open us up to the world of imagination while simultaneously validating the human experience. A fan favorite of Will's show is an improvised song based on topic suggestions from the audience.

Professor Universe

So you want to know how the universe works? Look no further! Professor Universe will take you on a comedic journey about space and the real-life magic of reality: light, gravity, stars, black holes – and laughs! Ideal for children of all ages.

Tulsa's Channel 8 Reads @ the Library

News anchors from Tulsa's Channel 8 will read their favorite children's books and share how vital reading is to understanding news events around the world.

What's the Problem?

Writing Workshop with Brenda Maier

Children's author Brenda Maier will use her books to illustrate the elements to consider when planning a story. Learn how to create characters and good problems for the characters to solve. You will leave with your own story to plan and explore.

Wondrous World of Nature With Kim Watson

Did you know that animals use their senses to survive just like we do? They build and use roads like we do. They build houses like we do. Some animals take care of their babies and teach them how to survive just like we do, while some babies are left to grow up on their own. This program includes stories, activities and crafts to introduce children to the wonderful outdoors.

Build A Reader Storytimes & PAWS for Reading

These programs are scheduled at several libraries and are designated with a ♥ in each library's listings.

Build A Reader Storytime: Babies

Join us for fun songs, stories and activities that are just right for your little one at this lapsit storytime for newborns to 2-year-olds and their caregivers.

Build A Reader Storytime: Babies & Toddlers

Ready, set, READ! This beginning storytime focuses on helping your baby or toddler develop important literacy skills while emphasizing the fun of reading.

Build A Reader Storytime: Family

Bring the whole family for this 0-to-5 storytime! There's something for everyone – simple songs and books for the little ones, more interactive stories and activities for your older children.

Build A Reader Storytime: Preschool

The best in children's literature, songs, games, finger plays, rhymes and other reading-related activities are shared with your preschooler.

Build A Reader Storytime: Stay and Play

For babies, toddlers and preschoolers, playing is learning! Join us for games, toys and activities that foster critical early literacy skills.

Build a Reader Storytime: Toddlers

Join us for songs, stories and movements geared to your toddler.

PAWS for Reading for Ages 5-12

Registered therapy dogs are excellent listeners. Kids are invited to read their favorite books to a furry, four-pawed friend. Each reader will receive a free book provided by the Raymond and Bessie Kravis Foundation through the Tulsa Library Trust.

Touch-a-Truck
Monday, July 15 • 10 a.m.-noon
Brookside Library will transform the parking lot into a truck “petting zoo.” Children of all ages can see familiar and not-so-familiar life-size vehicles up close. Come and touch, explore and perhaps sit in the driver’s seat! The drivers of these massive vehicles will be on hand to answer questions about their exciting equipment and careers. We’ll also have live music!
