What does it mean to lose your roots – within your culture, within your family – and what happens when you find them? Join Tulsa County residents in reading Nicole Chung’s 2018 memoir, All You Can Ever Know, a profound, moving chronicle of Chung’s cross-cultural adoption and search for her biological Korean parents. Named a Best Book of the Year by The Washington Post, TIME, Library Journal, NPR and many more!

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Meet Nicole Chung
Friday, Sept. 27 • 7-9 p.m.
Central Library • First Floor
Fifth Street and Denver Avenue
Chung will discuss All You Can Ever Know, answer questions from the audience and sign books. Copies of the book will be available for purchase through Magic City Books. Register at www.TulsaLibrary.org/events for event updates.

The Art of Memoir Writing
Monday, Sept. 23 • 6-7 p.m.
Central Library
Tuesday, Sept. 24 • 7-8 p.m.
Hardesty Regional Library
8316 E. 93rd St.

Where Your Family Story Begins: Using Ancestry Library Edition
Tuesday, Sept. 24 • 3:30-5 p.m.
Rudisill Regional Library
1520 N. Hartford

Take 5: Korean-American Literature
Wednesday, Sept. 25 • 7-8:30 p.m.
Martin Regional Library
2601 S. Garnett Road

Discover Your Heritage With Genealogy DNA
Wednesday, Sept. 25 • noon-1 p.m.
Jenks Library • 523 W. B St.
Friday, Sept. 27 • 10:30-11:30 a.m.
Schusterman-Benson Library
3333 E. 32nd Place

“A communitywide reading initiative featuring All You Can Ever Know”

Learn how and why you can take this journey, join Nicole Chung to discuss her new book, All You Can Ever Know, and bring your questions to the author for an engaging conversation and book signing. Copies of the book will be available for purchase through Magic City Books.

Joins a nationwide campaign by Library Journal and Library Trust to inspire reading and discussion around a significant book.

Join the conversation and bring your questions for the author.

Author Nicole Chung is the daughter of Korean adoptive parents and the adoptee of Korean biological parents. She details her identity journey with honesty and compassion.