Woodland Music

The wind whistles,

The trees sway,

The birds sing throughout the day,

The stream flows,

The fish splash,

The deer take a drink, and they're off in a flash,

The river reeds rattle,

The sun shines bright,

The crickets chirp happily,

The love the light,
The frogs croak,
Through the rocky, wet wall,
The wolf howls bravely,
A beautiful call,

Then the wind takes a turn,
And it rustles the brush,
And through all this noise the waterfall whispers,
Hush.
