A Woman Makes a Plan
By Maye Musk

The international supermodel shares personal stories and lessons learned from a life of "living dangerously – carefully." Maye Musk at 71 is a fashionable, charming, jet-setting supermodel with a fascinating and tight-knit circle of family and friends.
But things were not always so easy or glamorous.

Riot Baby
By Tochi Onyebuchi

Rooted in the hope that can live in anger, Riot Baby is as much an intimate family story as a global dystopian narrative. It burns fearlessly toward revolution and has quietly devastating things to say about love, fury and the black American experience.

All Adults Here
By Emma Straub

A warm, funny and keenly perceptive novel
about the life cycle of one family – as the kids become parents,
grandchildren become teenagers, and a matriarch confronts the legacy of her mistakes.

NFL 100
By Craig Ellenport

As the NFL celebrates its monumental 100th season, this vivid retrospective pays tribute to America's game in spectacular fashion.

Molly
By Colin Butcher

Molly is no ordinary deputy,
but a black Cocker Spaniel.
Trained by the top canine behavioral experts at Medical Detection Dogs, Molly can find missing cats
– who are uniquely skilled at eluding humans – by detecting a unique scent signature, and she has been wildly successful.

SANKOFA FREEDOM AWARD

2020

HONORING Anita Hill

SATURDAY, FEB. 15 • 10 A.M.
RUDISILL REGIONAL LIBRARY

Anita Hill, native Oklahoman attorney, author, educator and advocate for civil and women's rights, will receive the 2020 Sankofa Freedom Award, presented by the Tulsa City-County Library's African-American Resource Center and the Tulsa Library Trust. The award, which consists of a $10,000 cash prize and engraved plaque, is given biennially to a nationally acclaimed individual who has dedicated his/her life to educating and improving the greater African-American community.

Since receiving her juris doctorate from Yale Law School in 1980, Hill has taken passionate, purposeful steps toward eliminating inequality, and has spent decades advocating for gender and racial equality in financial and educational opportunities as well as in the workplace. In all of her endeavors, Hill has marked herself as a voice for those who are unable or unwilling to speak out against oppression and misconduct.

Hill is the author of her 1998 memoir Speaking Truth to Power and the 2012 Reimagining Equality: Stories of Gender, Race and Finding Home. She co-edited the 1995 Race, Gender and Power in America: The Legacy of the Hill-Thomas Hearings. Her story is told in the 2013 documentary film Anita: Speaking Truth to Power.

Tulsa's Greenwood district is the site of one of the most devastating race disturbances in the history of the United States. Before May 31, 1921, Tulsa's black business district known as Greenwood flourished in spite of segregation. It boasted several restaurants, theaters, clothing shops and hotels. Dubbed the "Black Wall Street," Greenwood was an economic powerhouse. After May 31, 1921, Greenwood would never be the same.

The following questions and answers are from the African-American Heritage Bowl Quiz Book, created by 1921 Tulsa Race Riot Commission members Vivian Clark-Adams, Ph.D., and historian Jimmie White Jr., and TCCL's African-American Resource Center Coordinator Alicia Latimer. The quiz book contains 200 questions and answers for participating teams to study and prepare for the bowl.

Question: How many people were killed during the riot?

Answer: Estimates range from 30 to over 300 people, but there is no definite number.

Source: African Americans: A Concise History by Darlene Clark Hine

Question: This church first started meeting in 1905 and began construction of its upstairs section in 1919, but after mobs of white Tulsans descended on Greenwood in 1921, the church, along with nearly the entire district, was destroyed. The basement, however, remained. Name this historic church, which was reconstructed in 1928.

Answer: Vernon African Methodist Episcopal Church

Question: Riot survivor Eldoris McCondichi was 9 years old when the massacre occurred. She reported that she and her family hid in a chicken coop while she saw and heard airplanes do what?

Answer: She saw and heard the airplanes rain down bullets.

Source: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lx62joRN-YU>, "Black Wall Street Survivor; Eldoris McCondichi," Sept. 21, 2010

Question: What did historian Dr. John Hope Franklin refer to the 1921 Tulsa Race Riot as being?

Answer: He said it was a "race war."

The Superlative A. Lincoln
By Eileen R. Meyer
Abraham Lincoln is famous for many extremes: he was the tallest president, who gave the greatest speech and had the strongest conviction. But did you know that he was also the most distracted farmer, the best wrestler and the craftiest storyteller? Nineteen poems share fascinating stories about events in Lincoln’s life.

Narwhals and Other Whales
By Mary Pope Osborne
Track the facts about the unicorn of the sea – the narwhal – and its closest relatives in this Magic Tree House Fact Tracker.

Eclipse Chaser
By Ilima Loomis
The August 2017 solar eclipse is the chance of a lifetime for astronomer Shadia Habbal – years of planning come down to one moment of totality. Will everything go off as planned?

Hollow Dolls
By MarcyKate Connolly
Set in the same fantasy world as the Shadow Weaver duology, this series starter weaves a tale of secrets, power, magic and the long path to home.

Henry and Bea
By Jessixa Bagley
Even though it’s hard for them both, Bea knows that she’ll be there for Henry, as his best friend, no matter what. From award-winning author/illustrator Jessixa Bagley comes a realistic and ultimately uplifting portrayal of the challenges of childhood friendship.
