Sponsored by the African-American Resource Center, Tulsa Library Trust, and Jim and Sally Frasier.

The following questions and answers are from the African-American Heritage Bowl Quiz Book, created by 1921 Tulsa Race Riot Commission members Vivian Clark-Adams, Ph.D., and historian Jimmie White Jr., and TCCL’s African-American Resource Center Coordinator Alicia Latimer. The quiz book contains 200 questions and answers for participating teams to study and prepare for the bowl.

Question: How many people were killed during the riot?
Answer: Estimates range from 30 to over 300 people, but there is no definite number.
