New and Coming Soon Titles for Teens/Tweens

Visit www.tulsalibrary.org to check out these titles and find more.

Into the Deep By Christy Peterson

Containing 97 percent of Earth's water supply, the ocean plays a huge role in regulating global temperatures, supporting plant and animal life, and contributing to the livelihoods of millions of people. But in spite of all this, the ocean remains drastically unexplored, and the details of its impact on human lives aren't fully understood.

The Talk By Wade Hudson

Thirty diverse and award-winning authors and illustrators capture frank discussions about racism, identity and self-esteem.

Whose Right Is It? By Hana Bajramovic

Timely middle-grade nonfiction documenting and discussing the Second Amendment and the rise of the NRA.

It Only Happens in the Movies By Holly Bourne

Audrey is over romance. While dealing with her parents' contentious divorce, a breakup of her own and shifting friendship dynamics, she has every reason to feel cynical. But then she meets Harry, her fellow co-worker at the local cinema. He's brash, impulsive and a major flirt.

The Cousins By Karen McManus

Milly, Aubrey, and Jonah Story are cousins, but they barely know each other, and they've never even met their grandmother. Rich and reclusive, she disinherited their parents before they were born. So when they each receive a letter inviting them to work at her island resort for the summer, they're surprised . . . and curious.

Donner Dinner Party: Bigger & Badder Edition: A Pioneer Tale
By Nathan Hale

In the spring of 1846, a group of families left Illinois and began the long journey to California. To save time, they took an ill-advised shortcut – with disastrous consequences.

The International Day of the Girl
By Jessica Humphreys

The UN designated Oct. 11 as the International Day of the Girl, a day to increase awareness of problems that affect girls around the world and to encourage progress toward gender equality. Nine stories inspired by the real-life experiences of girls from all over the globe bring to light the importance of this day.

Busted by Breakfast
By Tom Watson

Simon always has a lot to say. And sometimes he can't stop talking – even in the middle of class. When Simon gets in trouble for jabbering at school, his best friends, Molly and Rosie, think up a plan to keep him from getting grounded at home! It involves cars, suds and pink plastic flamingos!

For Which We Stand
By Jeff Foster

Now more than ever, it's so important for everyone to understand our government: where it came from, how it works and how we can bring about change. And, after all, in the words of author and government teacher Jeff Foster, "If you don't participate, you can't complain."

Clash of the Cackling Cougars
By David Bowles

Ivan, Malia and Dante are excited about their ski trip. There's no chance they'll stumble onto 13th Street in the mountains, right? WRONG! After being sucked through a portal, the cousins come face to face with joke-telling cougars that are more dangerous than they seem. How will the kids get out of trouble this time?

Student Hotspot

Tulsa City-County Library now has Student Hotspots available for checkout at all locations.

TCCL knows that there are pockets of our community that do not have connectivity and access to Wi-Fi, so we are extending our services beyond our buildings to offer connectivity to area students as an extension of our work to close the digital divide.

The hotspots are available on a first-come-first-serve basis for students in kindergarten through 12th grade. They may be checked out for 14 days with no renewals.

Visit www.tulsalibrary.org/hotspot or call 918-549-7323 for more details.
