Author Visit With Jewell Parker Rhodes
Tuesday, May 4 • 7-8:30 p.m.
Mag City Books is thrilled to welcome Jewell Parker Rhodes for a virtual author event in celebration of the reissue of her magnificent novel "Magic City." With a new Afterword from the author reflecting on the 100th anniversary of one of the most heinous tragedies in American history – the 1921 burning of Greenwood, an affluent Black section of Tulsa, known as the Negro Wall Street – Rhodes’ powerful and unforgettable novel of racism, vigilantism and injustice, weaves history, mysticism and murder into a harrowing tale of dreams and violence gone awry. This free event will be hosted on the Zoom platform and Facebook Live. To register in advance for the event on Zoom, visit https://magiccitybooks.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_O-4cR4E3-MxVFG2_02Hg. After registering you will receive a confirmation email with details on how to join the event. "Magic City" will be published on May 4 and is available to preorder now at Magic City Books or online here: https://magiccitybooks.squaresite.com/product/magic-city/439. For adults.

What to Read Next

Meet Author Jason Reynolds: 2021 Anne V. Zarrow Award for Young Readers’ Literature
Thursday, May 6 • 7-8 p.m.
Meet author Jason Reynolds, winner of the Tulsa Library Trust’s 2021 Anne V. Zarrow Award for Young Readers’ Literature, during a live virtual presentation on YouTube. Reynolds is the New York Times bestselling author of “All American Boys” and other works for young adult and middle-age audiences. “As a Black man and white man, both writers and educators, we came together to co-write a book about how systemic racism and police brutality affect the lives of young people in America, in order to create an important, unique and honest work that would give young people and the people who educate them a tool for having these difficult but absolutely vital conversations,” said Reynolds about his book “All American Boys,” co-written with Brendan Kelly. See the live award presentation here: www.youtube.com/tulsalibrary. Award presentation. Visit www.tulsalibrary.org/zarrowaward for more details. For all ages.

Brookside Book Discussion
Monday, May 10 • 1:30-2:30 p.m.
Read "The Burning: The Tulsa Race Massacre of 1921" by Tim Madigan and then join us for a lively virtual discussion on Zoom. Email brijtulsalibrary.org for details to join the meeting. For adults.

Craft Club: Bookbinding for Beginners
Monday, May 10 • 6:30-7:30 p.m.
Come by Central Library (curbside service) to pick up a free bookbinding kit (1 per household) while supplies last. Then join us on Zoom and learn the basics of bookbinding and make your own simple book. Register online at www.tulsalibrary.org/events or email cas@tulsalibrary.org to sign up for the Zoom crafting hangout. For adults and teens.

Collinsville Book Discussion
Tuesday, May 11 • 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Read Pulitzer Prize-winning "The Black Count" by Tom Reiss and then join us on Zoom us for a lively discussion. Email cv@tulsalibrary.org for Zoom invite. General Alex Dumas is a man almost unknown today, yet his story is strikingly familiar — because his son, the novelist Alexandre Dumas, used his larger-than-life feats as inspiration for such classics as "The Count of Monte Cristo" and "The Three Musketeers." But, hidden behind General Dumas’ swashbuckling adventures was an even more incredible secret: He was the son of a Black slave — who rose higher in the white world than any man of his race would before our own time. Born in Saint-Domingue (now Haiti), Alex Dumas made his way to Paris, where he rose to command armies at the height of the Revolution — until he met an implacable enemy he could not defeat. "The Black Count" is simultaneously a riveting adventure story, a lushly textured evocation of 18th-century France and a window into the modern world’s first multiracial society. For adults.
TCCL Remembers: Commemorating Tulsa’s 1921 Race Massacre

Friendship Mattered Then! Friendship Matters Now! – A Talk With Author Clifton Taulbert

Tuesday, May 11 • 6-7:30 p.m.

Join us via Zoom for an inspiring presentation from Clifton Taulbert, author of “Eight Habits of the Heart: Embracing the Values That Build Strong Communities.” For 36 hours in 1921, friendship lost its way. Great harm was done to people and property. Black Wall Street disappeared in billowing clouds of smoke. Dreams were shattered and some forever. According to Clifton Taulbert, the embrace of genuine friendship cannot restore the lost past, but it can ensure a different future ... one where 1921 will not be repeated and where all are respected, affirmed and included. “Over the past few months of this year, the history of Tulsa 1921 has been revisited as scores of people ... writers, young people, dancers, lawyers, movies, books, students and librarians all lending their voices as history to be taught and lessons to be learned. We are all in search for that more perfect union — a way of living together that requires friendship. We must not allow friendship to lose its way.” Register online at www.tulsalibrary.org/events or email register@tulsalibrary.org to receive a Zoom invite for this event. Sponsored by the Tulsa Library Trust. For all ages.

Sci-Fi & Fantasy Book Club

Wednesday, May 12 • 6-7 p.m.

Join fellow sci-fi and fantasy enthusiasts on Zoom to discuss “Red Rising” by Pierce Brown. Contact rebecca.mcwilliams@tulsalibrary.org for the Zoom link. Darrow is a Red, a member of the lowest caste in the color-coded society of the future. Like his fellow Reds, he works all day, believing that he and his people are making the surface of Mars livable for future generations. Yet he spends his life willingly, knowing that his blood and sweat will someday result in a better world for his children. But Darrow and his kind have been betrayed. For ages 16 and up.

Out-Lit: YA Book Club
Friday, May 28 • 4:30-5:30 p.m.
Join us as we do fun activities and chat about "You Brought Me the Ocean" by Alex Sanchez. Jake Hyde doesn’t swim—not since his father drowned. Luckily, he lives in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, which is in the middle of the desert, yet he yearns for the ocean and is determined to leave his hometown for a college on the coast. But his best friend, Maria, wants nothing more than to make a home in the desert, and Jake’s mother encourages him to always play it safe. There’s nothing “safe” about Jake’s future—not when he’s attracted to Kenny Liu, swim team captain and rebel against conformity. And certainly not when he secretly applies to Miami University. E-book, e-audio and physical copies are available for request at www.tulsalibrary.org. Register online at www.tulsalibrary.org/events to receive the Zoom link. For ages 12-18.
