DIG INTO GARDENING

As a physical, mental and often social activity that reduces stress, gardening is not just a rewarding hobby but a beneficial one. Whether you're interested in growing flowers for their beauty or vegetables for nourishment, TCCL can help you cultivate a garden that fits your vision and space, from indoor pots to outdoor planters.

Start with free seeds through the Seed Library. The Seed Library is a project of TCCL's Green Team, which champions environmentally friendly programs and activities across the library system. Launched in 2014 with just two locations, the Seed Library was inspired by customer suggestions and a desire to break down barriers to gardening.

"The Seed Library opens up access to gardening, to healthy food, to heirlooms and the stories they tell, and to the diverse foodways in our community," said Johanna Burton, Central Library associate and founder of the Seed Library.

The Green Team sometimes represents TCCL at the Tulsa Farmers' Market, 1 S. Lewis Ave. Stop by on Saturday, April 5 from 7-11 a.m. to say hello and learn more about the Seed Library!

Burton's own interest in seed saving began when she accidentally let carrots go to seed. This sparked her enthusiasm for the concept of a seed-sharing program and led to the Seed Library's creation. Today, it continues to flourish through nine Seed Library locations that engage the community in gardening and seed-saving practices.

With your TCCL card, you can check out up to 15 packets of seeds. Save seeds from the best plants and return them to the library for others. To find available seeds, use the online catalog and search for "seed library" or browse what's available at our Seed Library locations, which include the Bixby, Central, Collinsville, Glenpool, Hardesty Regional, Martin Regional, Nathan Hale, Suburban Acres and Zarrow Regional libraries. Learn more at www.tulsalibrary.org/seed-library.

Acquiring seeds might be the first step, but now you need to plant your seeds and help them grow. If you're not sure where to begin, start here:

- Get expert gardening tips at the free Lunch & Learn With the Tulsa County Master Gardeners series. Learn more on Page 6.

- Check out Universal Class for self-paced courses such as Intro to Gardening, All About Herbs and Vegetable Gardening 101. Access these free video lessons at www.tulsalibrary.org/online-learning.
- Browse magazines such as Amateur Gardening, Gardens Illustrated, BBC Gardeners' World, Garden News and more by exploring the Home & Garden category in OverDrive's magazine collection, available at tulsa.overdrive.com or through Libby. Use Libby online at www.libbyapp.com or download the app from your mobile device's app store.

Learn even more with these digital resources:

- Explore digital content like articles and e-books in the Home Improvement Source and the Hobbies & Crafts Source. Both resources offer information on topics such as container gardening, growing vegetables and herbs, attracting butterflies and more.
- Search for “horticulture and gardening” in eLibrary to browse a research topic that offers resources on gardening methods and practices, as well as links to related topics like vegetables, hydroponics, flowers and more.
- Try TopicSearch for even more gardening content, from articles about the magic of homegrown tomatoes to videos about vertical gardening.

Access all of these resources with your TCCL card at www.tulsalibrary.org/databases.

Abril 2025

Una guía mensual de eventos, servicios y recursos de la Biblioteca de la Ciudad y Condado de Tulsa

Creciendo con TCCL

Las bibliotecas a menudo se consideran lugares tranquilos y de estudio, pero también pueden ser centros comunitarios vibrantes, especialmente para los adolescentes. Involucrar a los adolescentes en los programas de la biblioteca puede ser un desafío, pero con el enfoque correcto, puede crear un entorno inclusivo que fomente el aprendizaje y el amor por la lectura de por vida.

TCCL ofrece muchos programas de ayuda para los adolescentes, como clubs de lectura, grupos de manualidades, eventos y más. Uno de los programas que más atrae a los adolescentes es el de los Teen Teamers. Este programa proporciona experiencia laboral práctica, aquí los jóvenes ayudan a las bibliotecas de TCCL durante el Programa de Lectura de Verano que celebramos cada año (varios de nuestros miembros del staff de las bibliotecas fueron Teen Teamers). A finales de la primavera de cada año, los jóvenes interesados pueden completar una solicitud y devolverla a la biblioteca donde están interesados en ser voluntarios. Los jóvenes interesados deberán pasar por una entrevista y una capacitación, al final recibirán una carta de recomendación, una tarjeta regalo de QT y una carta de agradeciéndoles por su servicio.

Otro evento que se ofrece es el de ayuda con FAFSA. La biblioteca Regional Martin junto con el grupo de Tulsa Higher Education Consortium, ellos ayudan con FAFSA, OK Promise, y otra ayuda financiera que un estudiante pueda necesitar. Ayuda bilingüe (inglés/español) está disponible todos los martes de 4-7 p.m., se reúnen en el laboratorio de computación. Incluso es útil para las personas que desean volver a la escuela y sólo quieren saber si hay alguna ayuda que podría estar disponible para ellos.

Lo que es popular entre los adolescentes es crucial para diseñar programas que resuenen con ellos, y otro programa que las bibliotecas tiene para los adolescentes es el de Teens Read Month este se lleva a cabo en el mes de octubre, TCCL organiza muchos programas y eventos. En el pasado se han organizado visitas de autores, mini conferencias de anime, bailes de graduación, zombis, etc. TCCL siempre tiene algo especial para ellos. Otro evento que también se lleva a cabo en este mismo mes, es le Spooky Story Contest cada año la biblioteca Schusterman-Benson, organiza un concurso de escritura creativa para estudiantes del condado de Tulsa entre los 8 y 18 años; todas las bibliotecas de la ciudad y condado de Tulsa tendrán formularios de inscripción, así que no hay excusa, si quieres participar solo ve a tu biblioteca más cercana.

Si lo que buscas son oportunidades de voluntariado y al mismo tiempo servir a la comunidad en general, la biblioteca Regional Martin ofrece Teen Volunteer Drop-In Hour. El segundo viernes y el cuarto miércoles de cada mes, adolescentes de entre 12 y 16 años de edad pueden completar horas de servicios en la biblioteca Regional Martin.

Como te puedes dar cuenta, las bibliotecas tienen muchos programas de interés para los adolescentes, que van desde interés social, educativo o diversión. Si quieres saber más sobre todos los eventos que ofrece TCCL, checa nuestro guía mensual de eventos, esta la puedes encontrar en cualquiera de las bibliotecas de la ciudad y condado de Tulsa. También lo puedes hacer en línea en www.tulsalibrary.org/teens donde encontraras más información.
