

THE YOUNGEST

I am the fourth, the very last
My siblings truly are outclassed
It's obvious that I'm the best with me my parents were very blessed
I am the fastest at all things
Like an angel I have wings

In school I'm superior
I'm always so much cheerier
Now please control your gazing my looks are quite amazing
Now I don't mean to intrude
But my big brother's awfully rude

And don't get me started on my sisters
They're around as annoying as blisters
Neither are quite as smart as me`
All they do is disagree
It takes hours to dust off my trophy shelf
Packed with things I won myself

I'm a three time Oscar nominee
A four time winner of the world grand prix
I've read more books, I've sung more songs
I've played more games, I've done less wrongs.
My mind is certainly the broadest

And best of all I'm modest

I am the smartest, I am the best

I get an A on every test

I'm the youngest tomorrow, I'm the youngest today

I'm better than my siblings in every way
