

Monsters bang on my door

I say, "what are you here for?"

Life doesn't frighten me at all

They don't answer, but keep banging

I look at the door barely hanging

Life doesn't frighten me at all

They tell lies,

And my little sister cries

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Then they barge in

I start to lower my chin

Life doesn't frighten me at all

I scream;

For they are a team

I cry,

But they sigh

My parents try to flee

I look at my dirty white tee

Life doesn't frighten me at all

They catch my parents

I comfort my sister

Life doesn't frighten me at all

I look at the damage,

But we are hungry so I make a sandwich

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Not knowing what to do

I start to feel blue

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Finally, somebody comes,

So i finish the crumbs

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Its my aunt

She says to come

Life doesn't frighten me at all

I cant leave the place i grew up

Before they trashed everything up

Life doesn't frighten me at all

I accept my fate,

But im almost late

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Almost late to court,

Where i testify to get my parents back

Life doesn't frighten me at all

I start to see the real world

The world that took my family

The world where kids are left hurled

The world where they take anybody angrily

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Not at all

Not at all

Life doesn't frighten me at all.
