Start A Neighborhood Association There was a time in Tulsa north when Neighborhood associations were plentiful and they worked together for the betterment of community. Strong Neighborhood associations are the backbone to healthy communities.

If you are interested in creating or re-establishing a neighborhood association please call City Councilor Vanessa Hall-Harper at (918) 596-1921 and she will be happy to get you started! Councilor Hall-Harper said "It is my goal as your City Councilor to assist in rebuilding Neighborhood associations.

The benefits of having neighborhood associations are many, creating relationships with your neighbors, safer communities, forming a bridge from your neighborhood directly to City Hall and access to city services. These connections also improve communication between elected officials and citizens.
