

Great Decisions Kickoff

FEATURING

J. Markham Collins

Sunday, Jan. 21

2:30-3:30 p.m.

Central Library

Aaronson Auditorium

Produced by the Foreign Policy

Association and sponsored locally by the Friends of the

Tulsa City-County Libraries,

Great Decisions is America's largest civic-education program on U.S. foreign policy and global affairs.

Friends of the Tulsa City-County
Libraries

Learn more about Great Decisions, get connected with a group and pick up discussion materials. Join J. Markham Collins, professor emeritus of international business and finance in the Collins College of Business at the University of Tulsa, for this enlightening presentation about U.S. foreign policy. Collins has served as vice provost for global education and co-director of the team that developed the Global Scholars program at TU.

GREAT DECISIONS 2018 TOPICS ARE:

- The waning of Pax Americana?
- Russia's foreign policy
- China and America: The new geopolitical equation
- Media and foreign policy
- Turkey: A partner in crisis
- U.S. global engagement and the military
- South Africa's fragile democracy
- Global health: Progress and challenge

Briefing books detailing the topics will be available for purchasing at the kickoff for $20 (cash or check only).